PROFILE

Solo AI builder and founder with no formal coding background, shipping production-ready AI-powered web platforms end to end — architecture, development, deployment, SEO, and monetization. Three live products in production today: NexGuild, xtoolkit.live, and StarScoopDaily. Background spans project leadership, community management, customer support, and AI data-quality evaluation across freelance, remote, and full-time roles — comfortable working independently against deadlines for distributed teams and clients.

PROJECTS

NexGuild — Founder & Product Builder nexguild.in

- Architected and shipped a two-sided micro-work platform: 6-tier RBAC, a NexCoin ledger with automatic commission splits, and 8 independent task-verification pipelines.
- Integrated two offerwall providers with HMAC-validated postbacks; built a full admin panel across 74+ routes with zero build errors.

xtoolkit.live — Founder & Website Creator xtoolkit.live

- Built a 44-tool free platform (pnpm monorepo, React/Vite frontend, Express API) with a hardened security middleware stack and a Chrome extension published to the Chrome Web Store (5-star rating).
- Shipped an SEO layer — prerendering, split sitemaps, structured data — on a client-rendered SPA; grew traffic to 40+ countries.

StarScoopDaily — Founder & Website Creator starscoopdaily.site

- Built an automated AI content pipeline (Groq / Llama 3.3 70B) publishing via the GitHub Contents API to work around Vercel's read-only production filesystem.
